

The COMSOL license number is 1210008000000001-PAIT-260401-13075339-B8D66BEE298C, version 6.4 - below some instructions for installation if needed

- Connect to the following link: <https://www.comsol.it/product-download>
- Create a COMSOL Access account.
- Once the account creation is complete, an email will be received from access@comsol.com; connect to the link in the email and complete the account activation.
- If not already done automatically with activation, log in to the newly created account, again using the link in the first step.
- Click on "Download online installer" and the download of the installer will start automatically.
- Run the installer.
- Select "English" as the installation language
- Select "New COMSOL 6.4 installation."
- Accept the license terms; from the drop-down menu, choose "passcode" as the license format and enter the following code in the appropriate bar: 1210008000000001-PAIT-260401-13075339-B8D66BEE298C
- ; enter "University of Pisa" as the affiliation (company).
- Continue to the next screens without changing anything; click on the "install" button to start the installation.
- Try to start the software to verify that the installation was successful.

IMPORTANT: The license is valid until 01/04/2026, thereafter you will be provided with the passcode associated with the updated license